Like every other patriot in the world, we have been holding our breath for the official arrival of President Donald J. Trump. Our last post was just a few days before the most important election in modern history. The overwhelming victory by Trump was not only a welcomed step forward in the fight against globalism, it also exposed the brutal tactics that the deep state are willing to take to destroy populism. Not just in America but worldwide.

In this article, we will take a different road. We could provide another historical series that exposes the Kult of Prussia and its quest for a globalist empire controlled by neo-Enlightened Despots. We could write about the Prussian origins of the Ukraine, or the evolution of the hidden Prussian kult at the bottom of the world in Australia, or even the CCP's naval apparatus strangely resembling the old Prussian military structure.

THE HOHENZOLLERN CHINESE NAVY? PART ONE

However, all of these series would be looking backwards. Now that President Trump is in charge, it is time to follow his lead and start looking forward to what is possible. The existential battle between Freedom and Tyranny is far from over, but we can now see that Freedom not only has the initiative, but under President Trump's command it has the opportunity to completely annihilate Enlightened Despotism and the dystopian criminal enterprises that have attempted to destroy and depopulate Western Civilization.

Now is not the time to look in the rear-vision mirror. Trump has put his proverbial foot on the gas and there is no turning back. The future belongs to Patriots, not globalists.

An Excursion Towards Freedom

While Trump was the President-elect, I decided to take the family on a little homeschool excursion and tour the United States of America. Some may be surprised that this author is not American. I was educated in America, but my career allowed me to live all over the world. Once the family arrived, we decided to settle and raise the kids in Australia. My children had never set foot on American soil, but always heard their father's continual dinner-table rants about the power of America, her liberty and freedoms, and how it is the only nation that can free the world from despotic globalism.

After the horrendous four-year curse of the illegitimate O'Biden Harris regime, I figured it could be an amazing time for my children to have their first American experience once Trump had won the election. Nothing compares to America when it is free and filled with optimism about the future. We were not disappointed.

From the desert of Vegas, to the shores of Florida, and back to the beauty of Hawaii, Trump supporters were out and proud. It was an experience like no other. Americans may not realize it, but wearing a MAGA hat is not so well received in Australia.

‘Enticing violence’: Man asked to leave popular Melbourne pub over MAGA hat

A popular Melbourne pub has drawn backlash after threatening to boot a customer unless he took off his red MAGA hat on Australia Day.

When in Rome, however, it was time to get our MAGA on! We drove the biggest cars the kids had ever seen. The traffic in Vegas, Austin and Miami was chaotic, but it was bloody fun! We were hoping to run into Elon or Alex Jones in Austin, but to no avail. That did not stop the family to learn how to shoot at The Range, drink a few beers overlooking the lake, and drive through the beautiful Texas wine country near Frederiksburg. Watching the sunset over the waters of hurricane ravaged Sarasota was incredible, but perhaps not as spectacular as the sun setting over the Everglades. We ate everything, within reason, that was American. We boot-scooted, nightclubbed and enjoyed the biggest margheritas the world has ever seen (not the kids, of course). Almost everyone we met was ecstatic about the future and the return of Trump. There were a few anti-Trumpers, but they were simply drowned out by the unbridled optimism that is sweeping the nation.

None of this, of course, was without some dramas. We found ourselves in a spot of bother in North Las Vegas. My rental car was seriously damaged by hotel valet parking in Florida, and upon my consternation, the valet could no longer speak English and the hotel immediately claimed it was not affiliated with the valet company. The city of Austin appeared to have more blue-haired bearded ladies than cowboys, and we found ourselves in the wrong part of town a number of times. However, these situations were nothing compared to the sheer awesomeness of a nation collectively excited about the prospect of a new, Golden Age.

It was a trip of a lifetime for the family. Most importantly, there was a very important homeschool lesson to be learned. One that cannot be taught, but experienced. America is back, and it is the only place in the world where full immersion courses in Freedom are currently possible.

This is not hyperbole. Around the Western world, patriots are being persecuted for criticizing the despotism of globalist governance. In the UK, jail terms are handed out for flag-bearing patriots. The Romanian election was cancelled because of a populist result. Exposed pedophiles are protected, while judges send whistleblowers to jail. Freedom is very hard to find these days.

The new Trump administration has become a beacon of light, and it is now unrelenting in exposing the treason within its own lands, and the cowardly weakness of ReichsWEF leaders around the world.

The Battle - Redux

This is not a time to sit back, get comfy and observe how things pan out. We are now in the most important battle in history. There are only two sides; Freedom and Tyranny.

What is Freedom? Our homeschool excursion provided the perfect definition. It is crazy, chaotic, and sometimes dangerous, but it is exhilarating, lively and fun.

Sometimes bad things can happen. Stock markets, like cars, can crash. Shark attacks happen, and occasionally criminals prosper. The price of freedom is to take destiny in your own hands, warts and all.

Most importantly, Freedom breeds outliers that change the course of history. Imagine if the Wright brothers “trusted the science” and decided to give up inventing the plane. Or Nikolai Tesla decided to stay in Serbia and not invent AC electricity<sup>3</sup>. Freedom allows the pursuit of anything, so long as it does not deprive others to do the same.

In 1903, New York Times predicted that airplanes would take 10 million years to develop

Only nine weeks later, the Wright Brothers achieved manned flight. The pathologically cynical always will find a reason to complain.

Where would the world be without Freedom? The answer is simple. Just compare America to King Charles’ favourite place, Romania. Poor, destitute, and still waiting for roads and electrification to happen. According to Charles, the “rewilding” of the Romanian province of Transylvania is still the blueprint for the future of humanity.

What is the Tyranny? The entire PrussiaGate substack has delved into the arch-enemy of the American experiment; Prussia. Not a nation, but an army that controls nations. A militant philosophy that places power in the hands of unelected bureaucrats who decide the fate of all humanity with thousands of laws, restrictions, mandates and punishments. People are not free to pursue their passions, but indoctrinated to serve “the greater good”.

The kult of Prussia gave rise to centralized education, centralized banking and commerce, brutal taxation, welfare and wars. Today, it is the backbone of neo-liberal and neo-conservative thinking. On the surface, it is in stark contrast to American Freedom. It appears orderly, in total control, but it is exceptionally boring. Most importantly, when the kult of Prussia does not get its way, it goes to war. Hegel explained this away by stating “War is progress”, and that “if you want freedom, you must die.”

After WWI, the German empire was disbanded. After WWII, Prussia was officially abolished. However, none of this eradicated the kult of Prussia. In fact, it worked in their favor. They were no longer bogged down by the chains of international law and treaties. They morphed into an army of corporations and openly coordinated their companies and central banks to secure the world’s supply chains and resources. Today Klaus Martin Schwab provides the penultimate platform for corporations to collude and carefully plan their next move in transforming the world into their vision for a New World Order. We have termed this army of corporations under the command of the World Economic Forum as the ReichsWEF.

To believe that the fight between Freedom and Tyranny is over is not only naive, but dangerous. Make no mistake that these merry band of transhumanist, depopulating psychopaths will never give up. History has shown us many times their ability to retreat, reform, rebuild and launch an attack when we least expect it.

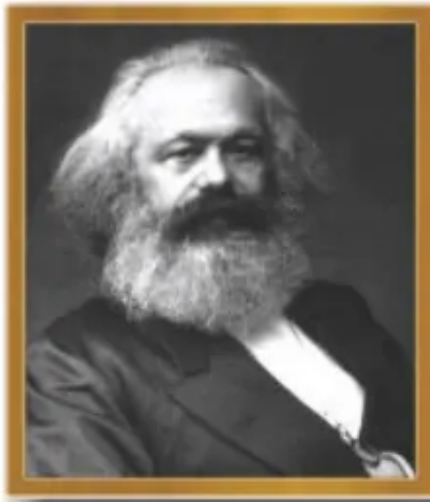

However, President Trump and his team are well aware of the horrible invisible enemy and are intent on exposing their evil. Once exposed, the world must not rest until the kilt of Prussia and its political philosophy of Enlightened Despotism is banished to the dustbin of history, forever.

Ten Out of Ten, and then the UN

Events are now unfolding at lightning pace, and for very good reason. The invisible enemy has penetrated deep into every government apparatus throughout the world. Trump and his team now control the initiative and are dismantling the deep state, piece by glorious piece.

We thought it appropriate to present our thoughts on the Trump team's first few weeks back in the office with a PrussiaGate lens. What better way to analyze their performance than through the Prussian agent of chaos, Karl Marx. We have contended that Karl Marx, and later Lenin, were Prussian agents who fomented Marxist revolutions to destabilize rival nation states and seize their resources and supply chains.

In 1848, Karl Marx published his Communist Manifesto, and provided a ten point plan to launch Marxist revolutions throughout Europe. Let's use his ten points as a rubric to measure how well President Trump is doing.

Karl Marx

THE TEN PLANKS OF THE COMMUNIST MANIFESTO

First Plank: Abolition of property in land and the application of all rents of land to public purposes.

Over the last 12 months, America has suffered numerous natural disasters. Until the return of President Trump, there has been very little to help the residents who have lost their properties and businesses to fires, floods and hurricanes. Recently, Gavin Newsom was giddy with schadenfreude as he hinted that Californian land will soon be rebuilt under his supervision.

None of this would be possible without the work of FEMA, which set up offices in disaster zones and managed the infrastructure and welfare of affected local areas. President Trump wasted no time in taking Newsom head-on, as well as his Marxist sidekick mayor of Los Angeles, Karen Bass. He has also taken steps to devolve power from the centrally controlled FEMA, and hand it back to the individual states.

Second Plank: A heavy progressive or graduated income tax.

The IRS was established alongside the Federal Reserve, over a century ago. Since then the federal government has gradually expanded its operations and now collects over 30% of GDP in tax revenue.

Government Revenue in the United States has steadily increased from 7 percent of GDP in 1902 to an expected 36.6 percent GDP in 2025.

Trump is looking to return America to a new Golden Age. The last time America was in a golden age, there was no income tax, or IRS.

Third Plank: Abolition of all rights of inheritance.

Inheritance tax is currently collected by the IRS, which is an organization currently on Trump's to-do list. However, globalists are nervous about his plans to repeal inheritance tax altogether:

Proposed Estate Tax Repeal: A Major Policy Shift

One of the most notable proposals from the Trump administration is the potential repeal of the federal estate tax.

Fourth Plank: Confiscation of the property of all emigrants and rebels.

Under the Biden Admin, supporters of Trump were openly persecuted, prosecuted and jailed. Numerous court cases throughout the country have been used as a means to silence and bankrupt ex-Trump officials. Rudy Giuliani, the former mayor of New York, was forced to file for bankruptcy after losing a $148 million defamation verdict. Peter Navarro and Steve Bannon both served time in federal prison for contempt of Congress, and thousands of people and their families were destroyed under the sham of the J6 investigations.

Fourth plankers enjoy destroying the lives of their enemies. But this sick fetish comes at a price. The J6 committee fucked around, and now they will soon find out what happens when you pervert justice for your own political benefit.

Fifth Plank: Centralization of credit in the hands of the State.

As many readers already know, the Federal Reserve was modeled after the Prussian central bank formed by Frederick the Great back in the 18th century. German bankers Kuhn, Loeb, Schiff and Warburg were instrumental in lobbying American politicians for the establishment of the Federal Reserve. Paul Warburg has been labelled the architect of the institution, while at the same time his brother Max was advising the German Kaiser in wartime financial matters.

Abolishing the Federal Reserve would be a death-blow to the deep state and their ability to manipulate global capital flows. Is Trump openly criticizing the Fed so that he can build his case for it to be restructured for America's future Golden Age?

It would be quite the treat if DOGE carried out the first audit of the Federal Reserve since its inception.

Sixth Plank: Centralization of the means of communication and transportation in the hands of the State.

On the communication front, the recent DOGE revelations regarding USAID have been most enlightening.

With respect to the centralization of transportation, after the painfully disastrous DEI hires at the TSA, Trump is moving forward on this front at a cracking pace:

Trump fires heads of TSA, Coast Guard and guts key aviation safety advisory committee

Seventh Plank: Extension of factories and instruments of production owned by the State

Today, seventh plankers are not looking to hand the means of production over to the State. Instead, the “State” has now been replaced by the ReichsWEF. Global corporations that control most of the world’s resources and supply chains follow orders from their Davos overlords. In Trump’s first week back in office, he wasted no time in addressing these disconnected klowns while they were attending their annual ski trip in Davos.

Eighth Plank: Equal liability of all to labor. Establishment of industrial armies especially for agriculture.

For the globalists, the eighth plank has been installed by the global adoption of the ESG and DEI policies ordered from the UN. BlackRock, and other firms, have coerced corporations to implement ESG and DEI policies, which resulted in millions of under qualified hirings around the world.

Under the Biden admin, farmland was openly sabotaged by implementing horrendous restrictions on farmers. The food supply was subsequently reduced, resulting in rapidly rising prices for food and other necessities.

Trump is putting an end to the Great DEI ESG Depression. A government based on merit, rather than “equal liability of all to labor”, is swiftly taking form.

Ninth Plank: Combination of agriculture with manufacturing industries, gradual abolition of distinction between town and country, by a more equitable distribution of population over the country.

Today, the ninth plank has evolved into the globalist plan to install AI smartcities throughout the world and “rewild” lands by destroying dams and farmland. “Equitable distribution of population” has now become a replacement migration and a depopulation program.

G20 Global Smart Cities Alliance

We tackle urgent crises facing cities and communities by mobilizing public and private leaders to accelerate intelligent, practical solutions and create pathways for building resilient cities.

16

The battle between Gavin Newsom and President Trump will set a precedent about the path of America and the pledges made by corrupt politicians to transform their cities into a smartcity megalopolis.

Tenth Plank: Free education for all children in public schools.

Education is a pivotal aspect of Marxist revolutions because its goal is to indoctrinate the youth with communist ideology. Today, it is not just about communism. Education departments around the world openly support the genital mutilation of children by encouraging transgender surgeries on young children. In some cases, this occurs without the knowledge or consent of parents.

DOGE vs. the Education Department

By BIANCA QUILANTAN | 01/06/2025 10:00 AM EST

'DOGE IS COMING' — President-elect Donald Trump has vowed to get rid of the Education Department — and his so-called Department of Government Efficiency will likely play a key role in any cuts to or restructuring of the federal agency.

When you look at the actions taken by Trump in his first month in office, he has cleanly and swiftly taken a stance against all ten planks laid out by Karl Marx in 1848. If he is successful, Marxism will be purged from the American system, root and branch.

However, one does not need the AI masterminds at DOGE to see a blatantly obvious pattern emerging. Over the last century, America and the world have been gradually subverted by an almost invisible Marxist occupation. Agenda 2030 was the timeline set by these neo-Prussian lunatics to have humanity completely under the control of a global communist regime.

But this battle does not stop at Marx's ten planks of the Communist Manifesto. Nations around the world have kowtowed to the United Nations since it was established after WWII. Today, the UN has mutated into a globally unelected bureaucracy that dictates policies to member nation states via treaties and international law. There are several UN subsidiaries that have wreaked havoc across the world:

- UNESCO, or the UN for education science and culture, is responsible for launching the horrendous educational curriculum endorsing climate change, transgenderism in sport and schools 19.
- The WHO, under the guidance of the Ethiopian Marxist terrorist Tedros, continues to push for a global pandemic treaty. This, they argue, is needed just in case Bill Gates prediction of another global pandemic is unleashed upon the world 20.
- The UNHRC, or the UN Human Rights Council, is responsible for mandating member states to accommodate "climate refugees", and is the impetus for the enormous swathes of illegal immigration into Western nations around the world 21.

Quite clearly, President Trump is simply sick of the bullshit these organizations spew out from their Swiss and Parisian offices, and clearly realized that the only way to deal with them is to not deal with them.

The level of insanity that has penetrated women sports is beyond any science fiction novel. However, over the years, thousands of women in every sport have lost medals, championships and even scholarships to effeminate ball-bearing boys.

Trump signs order banning transgender women from female sports

Watch: Trump signs executive order banning trans athletes from women's sports

US President Donald Trump has signed an executive order that prevents transgender women from competing in female categories of sports.

The order provides guidance, regulations and legal interpretations, and it will enlist the Department of Education to investigate high schools thought to be non-compliant.

24

Thank God for the inauguration of President Trump, who has swiftly re-levelled the playing field for female athletes. Women should not only be allowed to compete in a fair game, but also not be intimidated in the locker room by big swingers, like Lia Thomas.

But it is not just the realm of women sports where playing fields need to be levelled. For decades, the American economy has been gutted by unfair trade and tariff agreements, labor policies and, most importantly, 3rd world slave labor.

The policies of Western governments around the world since the 1970s was to increase the taxation and cost of labor and production in their own countries, while simultaneously supporting and subsidizing the economies of 3rd world nations. This all began when Henry Kissinger made a secret visit to China back in 1970.

Henry's visit was a deal between the most backward and the most powerful nation on earth. If China could open up its land to foreign production, corporations could move their factories from America and hire cheap Chinese labor. The Chinese were horrendously unskilled at the time, so Chinese universities were financed and built by the West to upskill and train future Chinese workers. The CCP benefited from the industrialization and modernization of their despotic, corrupt State, and globalist corporations profited from laying off expensive workers in America and hiring 10 Chinese workers for a fraction of the cost.

This is known as "The Great Labor Arbitrage", and very soon it became impossible for any corporation to stay profitable unless they used China as their manufacturing base. To help the game along, Western nations continued to make it more and more expensive to hire their own citizens by forcing companies to increase pension payments, medical insurance and payroll taxes.

On the trade front, President Bill Clinton turned a blind-eye to the horrific human rights abuses of the CCP, and maintained their favored nation trading status. In 2001, China became a member of the WTO. This allowed globalist corporations to export their Chinese-made products throughout the world without the scrutiny of the horrific work conditions placed on Chinese workers 25.

Most importantly, the US maintained a purist free-trade agreement with the world, and did not charge tariffs on most of the goods and services imported into America. Therefore, the profits from “The Great Labor Arbitrage” flowed directly into globalist corporations, as well as the corrupt CCP families running China. This would be at the cost of tens of millions of jobs in America, destroying its manufacturing base over time. The Chinese people have also suffered from a communist regime that should have died well before the USSR, but instead was propped up by globalist interests and is now the pin-up nation for social credit scores and organ harvesting gulags.

Is it time to level the playing field and rebuild the “Great American Marketplace”?

MAKING America Great Again

Trump has never shied away from his campaign slogan, Make America Great Again. There are two brilliant aspects to the MAGA mantra. The first is the word “make”:

make

verb transitive

1. to bring into being; specif.,
  - a. to form by shaping or putting parts or ingredients together, physically or mentally; build, construct, fabricate, fashion, create, compose, devise, formulate, etc.

26

For MAGA, this pertains to an action that brings into being an America that currently does not exist. With all the actions carried out by the Trump administration in its first couple of weeks, we can see that he intends to construct a new economy; one that levels the playing field for all!

The second word in MAGA that is of particular significance is the word, “again”:

again

(ə'geɪn ⓘ , ə'geɪn ⓘ )

adverb

1. another or second time; once more; anew she had to start again

27

Is Trump pertaining to an older time, when America was once so great, that they became the economic powerhouse of the world?

The Gilded Age, lasting from 1865 to World War I, was an era of economic growth never before seen in the history of the world. The standard of living of the modern age was born during this time of phenomenal transition. Lives lengthen. Wealth exploded. The middle class lived better than kings a century earlier.

ROBERT HIGGS

28

After the Civil War, Americans were in a desperate state. A huge percentage of the young male population had been killed or wounded in the war. The currency had been hyper-inflated into oblivion, and there were huge debts owed to those who had invested in the war via gold-backed government bonds; namely the British and Prussian aristocrats.

Within only a few decades, America had created unfathomable wealth. The middle class exploded in population, but also in wealth. The federal debt was managed and became a much smaller part of the economy. Most importantly, all of this was achieved without a central bank or income tax, and the main source of revenue to fund the federal government was through tariffs. In addition, money was backed by gold and silver, marking it a true golden age for America.

Is this the true meaning of MAGA, perhaps with a modern twist?

Tariffs, Borders, and Beer

Many market pundits are extremely negative on Trump's use of tariffs. They believe that tariffs will raise the price of goods for American consumers. In some cases, they are correct. However, they seem to be missing the trade-off that Trump is proposing. Tariffs instead of income tax.

Income tax is taken by the IRS, and given to the US Treasury. What happens to that money? We will leave that up to DOGE to find out, but USAID gives us a fairly good clue already. If income tax were abolished, the money would be left with the employee to decide how it is spent. In other words, the net pay to the average worker goes up, significantly.

The federal government still needs to find some way to pay for its existence. Trump's proposal is that this revenue is via tariffs for imported goods. Therefore, corporations who want to sell goods to the American consumer must first pay a toll to get their products into the greatest marketplace on earth.

In some cases, this tariff will result in higher prices for certain goods. However, in most cases the tariff will result in corporations considering to move their manufacturing to America, employ people to build and run factories, and create an economic boom like the American Industrial Revolution.

Consider that I was a foreign beer brewer, and my brewing operations were in China. Each brewery costs $10million to build, and I export $20million of beer to America every year. Add a 25% tariff, and it costs me another $5million to sell into the American beer market.

American beer drinkers are not going away anytime soon, and so I must make a decision as an international beer brewer. If I increase the cost of my beers to American consumers, I will most likely get much less sales. However, if I build a brewery in America, for Americans, I escape the tariff altogether. It costs me $10million to build new brewery, but I save $5million per year in tariff costs. That is a 50% return on capital, but I must first employ Americans to build and run my brewery.

The tariff encourages manufacturing to return to America if the product is to be sold in the American marketplace. And, generally speaking, for every manufacturing job that returns to America, it will generate 3-5 extra jobs; in management, sales and logistics.

More jobs, no income tax, in exchange for tariffed foreign goods. Playing field levelled

Beer Running the Border

Now imagine I instead decided to move my brewing operations to Mexico. The labor is much cheaper than in America, and I had a friend, who had a friend, who knew how to get huge quantities of beer across the border. Lots of money in paper bags changes hands, and thousands of kegs of beer go through tunnels, down rivers, and in planes into the United States.

I save $5million per year in tariffs, but it costs me $3million per year in bribes and lost kegs. Not only that, I'm now in the company of some bad hombres AND in trouble with the law in America. However, how will the Americans ever discover my cunning border beer running scam?

The answer to that is quite simple. Strong borders. Strong borders will stop everything that comes through the border, inspect it, and charge the necessary tariff. If it is the only source of federal tax revenue, then we can be quite certain that enough personnel will be hired to collect the money. Eventually, nothing will get through without a border official's stamp of approval.

Therefore, tariffs by default MUST have strong borders for revenue purposes. Now extrapolate my horrifically conceived border beer running scam into other goods that come across the border into America; in particular fentanyl, illegal immigrants and undocumented children.

A nation is defined by its borders. A nation that can finance its government with tariffs through strongly enforced borders can not only produce a new golden age for America, but put an end to the insane amount of deaths caused by fentanyl, as well as an end to the horrific child and sex trafficking that is destroying the fabric of Western civilization.

Tariffs are not just about money. It will level the playing field, create strong borders and put the ball back into the court of the globalist corporations who refuse to manufacture in America, or employ Americans.

The Culture Club

Back in the 80s, the androgynous Boy George took the world by storm with his British pop band, Culture Club.

29

During the 70s and 80s, there were quite a few musicians who dared to blur gender norms; David Bowie, Grace Jones, and Boy George to name a few. However, no one ever explained their look as LGBTQI++. They were simply artistic expressions.

Today, in some schools, children who identify as “furries” have kitty litters supplied to them in school halls. UNESCO disseminates policies to be implemented in education departments around the world to specifically cater for “gender variant” students.

Trans, gender variant and intersex students in schools: policy

Ministry for Education and Employment; 2015. 20 p.

30

If we go back to the 80s, not even Boy George could have envisioned the world that we live in today. How did we get here? The answer is quite simple; culture.

In biology, cultures are groups of cells that are grown in an artificial environment for scientific purposes. In society, cultures are groups of people that develop multi-generational habits that make them distinct from other groups of people 31.

If we combine the biological and social definitions of culture, we can begin to understand the crazy world that many students are currently immersed:

Student culture are groups of students that grow up in a scientifically designed, artificial environment for the purpose of transforming humanity into a transgender, marxist shithole.

In other words, there is a culture club that is intent on destroying the familial worldviews of our children and transforming them into blue haired, genitally mutilated and barren mutants.

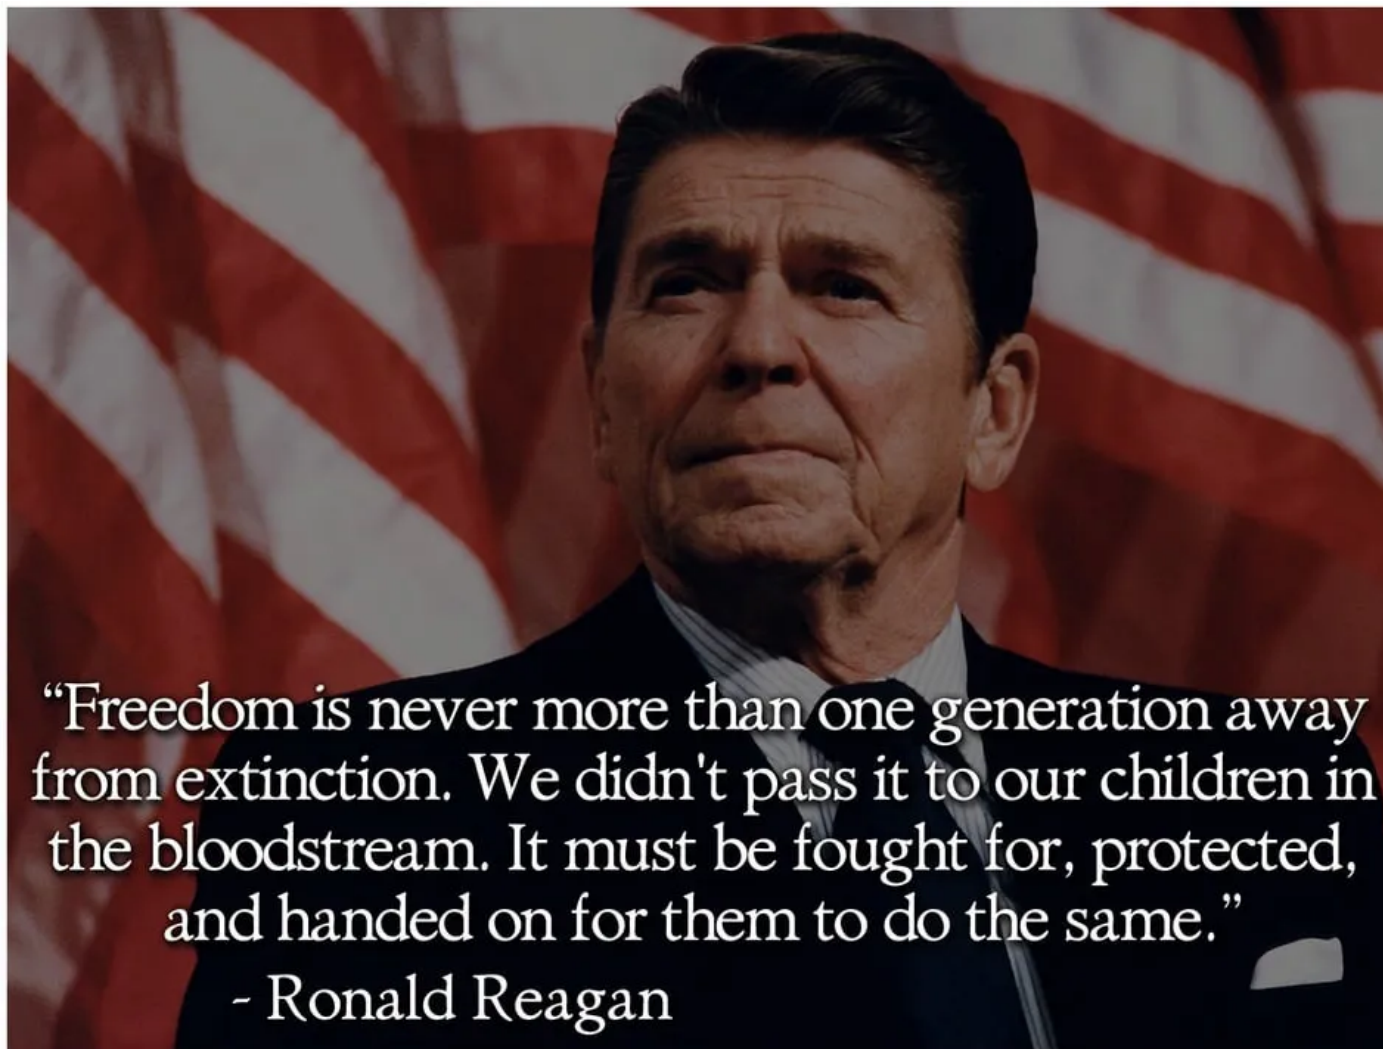

That club originates with UNESCO, but is disseminated and nurtured by Department of Education throughout the Western World.

In our article, Schooled by the Enemy, we showed how Marxism is endemic in our schools, and globalist corporations around the world have employed indoctrinated MBAs to implement the transgender, Marxist culture into the the corporate work place. If we do not change the culture in our schools, our children will grow to hate the world that President Trump and his team are working overtime to create. Therefore, culture club programs around the world need to immediately cease and desist.

In our last series, When Decades Happen, we addressed the differences between left and right brain thinking. Left brain thinking is mechanical, like a computer, while the right side promotes “out of the box” style thought processes. However, according to Dr. Iain McGilchrist, when the left brain imprisons the right, humans are no longer able to think or act outside of a computer-like madness. They blindly follow orders and are afraid of the consequences of not doing so. McGilchrist believes the Woke insanity we live in today is a result of a pandemic of left-brained NPCs, unable to believe anything other than what their TVs tell them to believe.

Like cells in a petri dish, humanity has been cultured from the cradle to the grave to be transformed into a left-brained idiocracy while their corrupt political overlords pilfer the treasury through organizations like USAID.

If we are to win the long battle against Tyranny, we must all jump out of the Prussian petri dish and re-discover the culture that made Western Civilization great.

President Trump and the DOGE team are now eyes-on with the Department of Education. This is a great step forward in reducing the horrendous influence marxism has in the halls of academia. However, we must all do our part to counter the culture war that has taken place in our childrens' classrooms. Our minds must be aligned with the principles of Freedom, so that we can all begin to think for ourselves, and trust our own judgements. By doing so, we escape the left-brain prison that has befallen our cultures.

It is time to get our minds fit, again.

CONCLUSION

It has been nearly a month since President Trump returned to the Oval Office. He has wasted no time in trying to repair the immense damage incurred by the handlers of Joe Biden and Kamala Harris. To this day, nobody really knows who was running America or if Joe Biden could even remember his birthday, let alone the nuclear codes. Regardless, its time to march forward as quickly as possible, and Make America Great Again.

President Trump has immediately attacked all ten points of Karl Marx's communist manifesto. He has withdrawn from the clownshow institutions of UNESCO, the WHO and the UNHRC. These three organizations alone have done more damage to the world than Lenin and Trotsky could have ever dreamed of.

Trump has levelled the playing fields in women's sports, but is also trying to even out things on the geopolitical and economic front. No longer will America be subject to unfair trade treaties and subsidize the rest of the world's inefficiencies. Tariffs not only achieve this goal, but force globalist corporations to pay a fee in order to participate in the Great American Marketplace.

If tariffs are gradually used to eliminate income tax, there will be a boom in America that has not been seen for over 100 years. Workers will enjoy larger pay packets, while businesses will be able to operate with very little red tape. Manufacturing jobs will return to America, which in turn will create a middle class boom similar to the last American age; which came to an abrupt end when the Federal Reserve and Income Tax Act were implemented.

To enforce tariffs, borders must be ruthlessly guarded. America will no longer be an open border for criminal "climate refugees" to enter illegally, raping and killing innocent citizens. Tariffs create strong borders. Strong borders create a safer America. A safer America, combined with a jobs boom, will become a free-market place that every business in the world will want to be a part of.

As for this author and his family, the visit to America was a life-changing experience. It is time for everyone to lock-in and get to work. Perhaps we will see you in the Great ## American Marketplace!

It is time, culturally, to CHARGE!!!!!!

The End.

So happy, Will, that you and your family got to experience America! I lived all over this country - East and West, North and South. Each region is distinct, unique, some preferable to others. But I would not live anywhere else. I remember as a kid, maybe 4 or 5, screaming back and forth with the neighbor I lived across the street, "Get off my property!" Such an American thing. I've lived in houses and apartments in the city and in the suburbs. Now I live outside the city, on 3 acres of creek, rolling prairie, NW Texas. It is so quiet out here. I have enjoyed your Prussia series very much. I hope you will come back and visit us again here in the US of A!
