This addendum is meant to provide a brief update on a topic I have covered previously. Throughout the Devolution Series I have highlighted many of the key executive orders that I believe will be coming into play as things progress and justice is served to those who have wronged America in so many different ways. A compelling source of circumstantial evidence for the devolution theory is that time and again, actions are being taken to continue these executive orders when doing so serves as a complete contradiction to what the narrative tells us should be happening.

For example, one of those key executive orders is executive order 13848 - Imposing Certain Sanctions in the Event of Foreign Interference in a United States Election. We know the 2020 election was stolen and those who stole it currently occupy the White House. Executive order 13848 is tailor-made to fit our enemies' crimes of election theft and yet, even though they seemingly hold the levers of power and could simply let this national emergency expire, they have now continued this national emergency for a second time:

BRIEFING ROOM

Notice on the Continuation of the National Emergency With Respect to Foreign Interference In or Undermining Public Confidence in United States Elections

SEPTEMBER 07, 2022 • PRESIDENTIAL ACTIONS

On September 12, 2018, by Executive Order 13848, the President declared a national emergency pursuant to the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.) to deal with the unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States constituted by the threat of foreign interference in or undermining public confidence in United States elections.

Although there has been no evidence of a foreign power altering the outcomes or vote tabulation in any United States election, foreign powers have historically sought to exploit America's free and open political system. In recent years, the proliferation of digital devices and internet-based communications has created significant vulnerabilities and magnified the scope and intensity of the threat of foreign interference. The ability of persons located, in whole or in substantial part, outside the United States to interfere in or undermine public confidence in United States elections, including through the unauthorized accessing of election and campaign infrastructure or the covert distribution of propaganda and disinformation, continues to pose an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States. For this reason, the national emergency declared on September 12, 2018, must continue in effect beyond September 12, 2022. Therefore, in accordance with section 202(d) of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1622(d)), I am continuing for 1 year the national emergency declared in Executive Order 13848 with respect to the threat of foreign interference in or undermining public confidence in United States elections.

This notice shall be published in the Federal Register and transmitted to the Congress.

JOSEPH R. BIDEN JR.

THE WHITE HOUSE,
September 7, 2022

Seeing this continuation reminded me of another key executive order we have covered in the devolution series that seemed to have an expiration date attached to it. Let's refresh our memory on a executive order 13818. I won't do a full recap, but will show screenshots of the most important parts. For a detailed breakdown, go back and re-read Devolution - Part 17:

Executive Order 13818

Executive Order 13818 of December 20, 2017

Blocking the Property of Persons Involved in Serious Human Rights Abuse or Corruption

Executive Order 13818: Blocking the Property of Persons Involved in Serious Human Rights Abuse or Corruption is similar in structure to one of the other most important Executive Orders we will see put to use in the future - Executive Order 13848: Imposing Certain Sanctions in the Event of Foreign Interference in a United States Election. Both are wide in their scope and both will be used to dismantle the Deep State and all its accomplices.

I, DONALD J. TRUMP, President of the United States of America, find that the prevalence and severity of human rights abuse and corruption that have their source, in whole or in substantial part, outside the United States, such as those committed or directed by persons listed in the Annex to this order, have reached such scope and gravity that they threaten the stability of international political and economic systems. Human rights abuse and corruption undermine the values that form an essential foundation of stable, secure, and functioning societies; have devastating impacts on individuals; weaken democratic institutions; degrade the rule of law; perpetuate violent conflicts; facilitate the activities of dangerous persons; and undermine economic markets. The United States seeks to impose tangible and significant consequences on those who commit serious human rights abuse or engage in corruption, as well as to protect the financial system of the United States from abuse by these same persons.

I therefore determine that serious human rights abuse and corruption around the world constitute an unusual and extraordinary threat to the national security, foreign policy, and economy of the United States, and I hereby declare a national emergency to deal with that threat.

Hypothetical: Let's pretend somebody steals taxpayer dollars and launders it through the United States, then goes on to hire a politician's son through a corrupt company, and then that politician gets the prosecutor investigating it all fired by withholding $1 Billion.

Executive order 13818 would come in to play against (not exhaustive, just spitballing):

- The one stealing and laundering the money
- The politician
- The politician's son
- Any and everybody who was aware of the scheme
- Anybody who benefitted from any of the money that was stolen or paid to the politicians

Executive order 13818 is truly a catch-all for corruption and its perpetrators. The last key section here is the one that preserves the element of surprise in apprehending the criminals:

Sec. 7. For those persons whose property and interests in property are blocked pursuant to this order who might have a constitutional presence in the United States, I find that because of the ability to transfer funds or other assets instantaneously, prior notice to such persons of measures to be taken pursuant to this order would render those measures ineffectual. I therefore determine that for these measures to be effective in addressing the national emergency declared in this order, there need be no prior notice of a listing or determination made pursuant to this order.

This executive order could easily take down the entire corrupt political establishment if and when it is properly used, but there is one aspect to this that needs to be addressed.

Sunset

Just like all Executive Orders, 13818 draws upon specific authorities to allow the President to put it into effect. Here are the authorities Trump used in the issuance of executive order 13818.

Executive Order 13818 of December 20, 2017

Blocking the Property of Persons Involved in Serious Human Rights Abuse or Corruption

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.) (IEEPA), the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.) (NEA), the Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act (Public Law 114-328) (the "Act"), section 212(f) of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 (8 U.S.C. 1182(f)) (INA), and section 301 of title 3, United States Code,

Here is where it gets concerning. The Act was implemented through the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal year 2017, and it was issued with a “Sunset”. This means the authority to use this Act and therefore, to use executive order 13818 would terminate “6 years after the date of enactment of this act”.

SEC. 1261. <<NOTE: Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act. 22 USC 2656 note. 22 USC 2656 note.>> SHORT TITLE.

This subtitle may be cited as the “Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act”.

SEC. 1262. DEFINITIONS.

SEC. 1265. <<NOTE: 22 USC 2656 note.>> SUNSET.

(a) In General.--The authority to impose sanctions under this subtitle shall terminate on the date that is 6 years after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(b) Continuation in Effect of Sanctions.--Sanctions imposed under this subtitle on or before the date specified in subsection (a), and in effect as of such date, shall remain in effect until terminated in accordance with the requirements of section 1263(g).

Here is the intro to the NDAA for 2017 and the effective date is highlighted at the bottom.

NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2017

Public Law 114-328
114th Congress

An Act

To authorize appropriations for fiscal year 2017 for military activities of the Department of Defense, for military construction, and for defense activities of the Department of Energy, to prescribe military personnel strengths for such fiscal year, and for other purposes. <<NOTE: Dec. 23, 2016 - [S. 2943]>>

This means 6 years from December 23, 2016, the authority for the Act and executive order 13818 would terminate. That sunset date is December 23, 2022. Here is confirmation from the Congressional Research Service of the Sunset date:

The E.O. delegates sanctions determinations to the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General. As is the case with sanctions regimes generally, the Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) administers the economic sanctions, while the State Department implements visa sanctions. The Global Magnitsky Act sunsets on December 23, 2022. Because the President invoked national emergency authorities to target human rights abusers, sanctions could continue beyond the expiration of the Global Magnitsky Act. The President has annually renewed the national emergency under E.O. 13818, most recently in December 2019.

Now this is concerning. One of the broadest executive orders Trump implemented to take down the corrupt political establishment has a looming sunset date attached to it. Not only that, but Biden would need to re-authorize the executive order as well to make sure it remains in play. How do we know this will continue to be in effect when we need it?

I published Devolution - Part 17 back in February. Since publishing that article there has been a major development that has gone completely unnoticed. In April, President Biden signed a bill into law titled “H.R.7108 - Suspending Normal Trade Relations with Russia and Belarus Act”:

On the very last page of this Act, in the very last section, they provided us with another one of those contradictions we've been looking for.

SEC. 6. REAUTHORIZATION OF SANCTIONS UNDER THE GLOBAL MAGNITSKY HUMAN RIGHTS ACCOUNTABILITY ACT WITH RESPECT TO HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND CORRUPTION.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1265 of the Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act (subtitle F of title XII of Public Law 114–328; 22 U.S.C. 2656 note) is repealed.

Repeal.

(b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of contents in section 2(b) and in title XII of division A of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017 (Public Law 114–328) are each amended by striking the items relating to section 1265.

130 Stat. 2014, 2473.

Approved April 8, 2022.

Recall that Section 1265 of the Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act is the section that had the sunset:

SEC. 1265. <<NOTE: 22 USC 2656 note.>> SUNSET.

(a) In General.--The authority to impose sanctions under this subtitle shall terminate on the date that is 6 years after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(b) Continuation in Effect of Sanctions.--Sanctions imposed under this subtitle on or before the date specified in subsection (a), and in effect as of such date, shall remain in effect until terminated in accordance with the requirements of section 1263(g).

In a seemingly random bill, that on the surface had nothing to do with corruption, they removed the sunset clause on the Global Magnitsky Act. By removing the sunset permanently, we once again are provided with circumstantial evidence that Biden is not in full control. This executive order was tailor-made to fit the corruption of the political establishment and those that are currently in “control.” Executive order 13818 may as well be titled “Blocking the property of the Biden Crime Family.”

When I posted that Biden had continued the national emergency for executive order 13848, JustHuman posted a quote from Ayn Rand and it’s perfect for our situation:

Does anybody still believe the premise that Joe Biden is in control?
