This will be a relatively short article dedicated to the topic of Presidential Emergency Action Documents (PEADs). I'll be clearing up some misconceptions about PEADs and showing you something incredible that I have uncovered about them.

Let's begin with some background from the Brennan Center:

Origins

Faced with the possibility of a Soviet nuclear strike, mid- to late-20th-century presidents crafted a collection of pre-planned emergency actions. Although none has ever been leaked, declassified, or deployed, we know that some early drafts rested on broad claims to inherent executive power. Official reports from the 1960s indicate that various PEADs authorized the president to suspend habeas corpus, detain "dangerous persons" within the United States, censor news media, and prevent international travel. (The Brennan Center's repository of related materials, spanning the administrations of 12 presidents, can be found here.)

Right off the bat, we can clear up some of the misconceptions floating around.

Anybody who is claiming to know for a fact what is specifically in any of the PEADs is lying.

Anybody claiming to know for a fact that a PEAD(s) has been implemented is lying.

We can certainly speculate, as I do often, but for anybody to claim any factual knowledge on what may be in the PEADs or that they were used at all is false. These documents are top secret and "none has ever been leaked."

Another misconception I believe it is important to address is who might know what's in the PEADs.

Anybody claiming that only Trump and the military know what's in the PEADs is lying.

A trove of documents was recently obtained from the George W. Bush Presidential Library through a Freedom of Information Act request. These documents shed light on the review that was taking place of the PEADs while George W. Bush was President. One of the documents included a “PEADs Submission List.” The list showed us which agencies are involved in the separate PEADs

Under the heading “AGENCY” we can find all the different agencies with a PEAD relating to them.

* = Core PEADS					12/6/2004
 = Newly Developed PEADS					12/6/2004

So as of 2004, we have at least 14 different Agencies involved in any number of PEADs: The DOD, DHS, WH, DOJ, NARA, DOC, USDA, DOE, Treasury, OSTP, OPM, DOS, DOT, HHS.

At minimum, the head of each agency would know the details of the PEAD(s) that affects them.

In addition to this, the Office of Legal Counsel performs occasional reviews of the PEADs for legality. Just to make the point clear: the PEADs are known by more than just the President and the Generals in the military. Every PEAD is different and is a response to different scenarios so depending on what happens, any number of agencies could be involved in a PEAD.

New Revelation

Documents from the Clinton administration revealed to us that in the year 2000, there were 40 PEADs in existence:

Program Changes:

	Perm.
	Pos.	WY	Amount
PEADS Projects.....	1	1	$93

At the direction of the Attorney General, and over the next two years, the Office of Legal Counsel will be responsible for conducting a legal review of a series of 40 presidential emergency action documents that were prepared by OLC over a decade ago. The review will involve original legal research, review of other agencies' legal work, and a substantial amount of legal writing. The Offices estimates that this review will entail hundreds of hours of legal work involving attorneys at all levels within the office. Part of longer term plan for these documents is an ongoing legal review to ensure that the documents always reflect current law and that they have been prepared. This ongoing review will require the commitment of one full time attorney or one additional workyear. Accordingly, the Office will need an additional attorney position in order to properly perform this newly added responsibility.

An Office of Legal Counsel status report from the recent trove of George W. Bush documents revealed the number of PEADs had increased to a total of 52 (48 original, 4 new):

Office of Legal Counsel
United States Department of Justice

November 2007 Status Report

- 48 original PEADs
- 4 new PEADs

Documents Cleared by DOJ – 44

- 20 – Completed
 - 12 - Distributed to D/As
 - 8 – In production
- 24 – Under review at White House
- 8 – Under review at DOJ and D/As

And this brings us to the most recent information we have on PEADs. The Office of Legal Counsel (OLC) was tasked with “working on and updating a series of Presidential Emergency Action Documents.” Every year throughout their review, the OLC would submit a budget request to the House Committee on Appropriations in order to fund the cost of their review. There were 5 total budget requests:

President Barack Obama

- 2013 House Committee on Appropriations Hearing (PEADs discussed on page 663)
- 2014 House Committee on Appropriations Hearing (PEADs discussed on page 670)
- 2015 House Committee on Appropriations Hearing (PEADs discussed on page 545)

President Donald Trump

- 2016 House Committee on Appropriations Hearing (PEADs discussed on page 496)
- 2017 House Committee on Appropriations Hearing (PEADs discussed on page 625)

Keep in mind that each of these hearings took place in the year listed above but they we're requesting funds for the following year. For example, the first one listed above with the year 2013 was requesting funding for 2014:

COMMERCE, JUSTICE, SCIENCE, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS FOR 2014

The OLC budget requests for the years 2013 - 2016, while Barack Obama was President, revealed 56 "current" PEADs which they had been reviewing.

2013

Beginning in FY 2012, OLC has been working on and updating a series of presidential emergency action documents (PEADs), first prepared by OLC in 1989 and updated pursuant to presidential directive in 2008. PEADs are pre-coordinated legal documents designed to implement a Presidential decision or transmit a Presidential request when an emergency disrupts normal governmental or legislative processes. A PEAD may take the form of a Proclamation, Executive Order, or Message to Congress. The PEAD Portfolio as an entirety is classified Secret; however, after signature by the President, individual PEADs are unclassified. OLC has been charged by the National Security Staff with conducting its current legal review of the PEADs, expected to be completed by December 2013, to ensure that each of the current 56 documents reflects current law and adequately addresses the emergencies for which it was prepared.

Since FY 2012, OLC has been working on and updating a series of presidential emergency action documents (PEADs), first prepared by OLC in 1989 and updated pursuant to presidential directive in 2008. PEADs are pre-coordinated legal documents designed to implement a Presidential decision or transmit a Presidential request when an emergency disrupts normal governmental or legislative processes. A PEAD may take the form of a Proclamation, Executive Order, or Message to Congress. The PEAD Portfolio as an entirety is classified Secret; however, after signature by the President, individual PEADs are unclassified. 2014

PEADs are pre-coordinated legal documents designed to implement a Presidential decision or transmit a Presidential request when an emergency disrupts normal governmental or legislative processes. The PEAD Portfolio as an entirety is classified Secret; however, after signature by the President, individual PEADs are unclassified. OLC has been charged by the National Security Staff with conducting its current legal review of the PEADs, expected to be completed by June 2015, to ensure that each of the current 56 documents reflects current law and adequately addresses the emergencies for which it was prepared. OLC's detailed PEAD review involves original legal research, review of other agencies' legal work, and a substantial amount of legal writing and editing.

OLC's detailed PEAD review involves original legal research, review of other agencies' legal work, and a substantial amount of legal writing and editing.

The final OLC budget request from the year 2017 is the only one that occurred while Donald Trump was President of the United States. Here is that same paragraph regarding PEADs from 2017:

What we have here is a small, yet extremely significant change in the wording.

The Obama years all said “each of the current 56 documents.”

current 1 of 2 adjective

cur·rent 'kər-ənt 'kə-rənt

Synonyms of current >

1 a (1) : occurring in or existing at the present time

The lone Trump year said “each of the approximately 56 documents.”

approximate 1 of 2 adjective

ap·prox·i·mate ə-'präk-sə-mət

Synonyms of approximate >

1 : nearly correct or exact : close in value or amount but not precise

We went from 56 PEADs “existing at the present time” under Obama to “close, but not precisely” 56 PEADs under Trump.

This means there exist either more or fewer than 56 PEADs, and that number changed while Trump was President. Again, this is the latest information we have and it comes from 2017. We have no clue what changes may have taken place in the following three years, but it’s still an incredible revelation.

This is the first piece of circumstantial evidence we have that Trump may have added a PEAD that wasn’t already in existence. A PEAD that could be in response to a new type of warfare.

I also know that it’s possible that may he removed some PEADs. However, I believe it is much more likely that there were additions.

“The Alarming Scope of the President’s Emergency Powers”

I and many others have been speculating for years that Trump may have used the PEADs in some fashion to implement devolution.

When you look at the actions taken by congress, it seems as though they were concerned about Trump's potential use of PEADs as well..

Democrats tried pushing legislation to gain access to the PEADs four times leading up to the election in 2020:

Congressional Actions

- On April 24, 2020, House Judiciary Committee Chairman Rep. Jerrold Nadler and Subcommittee on the Constitution, Civil Rights, and Civil Liberties Chairman Steve Cohen sent a letter to Attorney General William Barr requesting a briefing and documents related to PEADs.
- On May 5, 2020, Senator Ed Markey introduced the Restraint of Executive In Governing Nation Act of 2020 requiring that the president disclose PEADs to the appropriate congressional committees.
- According to the Associated Press, in May 2020 a bi-partisan group of Senators sent a letter to then Acting Director of National Intelligence Richard Grenell asking to be briefed on PEADs.
- On September 23, 2020, House Democrats introduced as part of the Protecting Our Democracy Act a requirement that the president disclose PEADs to the relevant congressional committees.
- On May 17, 2022, the House Judiciary Subcommittee on the Constitution, Civil Rights, and Civil Liberties held a hearing on reforming emergency powers, including PEADs.

They even used the mockingbird media to push the narrative that Trump's emergency powers were "alarming." These are just a few examples.

- Elizabeth Goitein and Andrew Boyle, "Trump Has Emergency Powers We Aren't Allowed to Know About," New York Times, April 10, 2020
- Elizabeth Goitein, "The Alarming Scope of the President's Emergency Powers," The Atlantic, January/February 2019
- Elizabeth Goitein, "Rewriting the Limits of Presidential Powers," CBS Sunday Morning, August 16, 2020

The entire premise of PEADs and COG was built around responding to nuclear war. I discussed this in Devolution - Part 4:

Receipts

This document from the University of Michigan Journal of Law Reform has some great information on Presidential Emergency Action Documents (PEADs). It also discusses continuity of government (COG) and how PEADs play a role within COG planning. If you remember my Devolution part 3, you'll know why COG planning is important. Here is a good explanation of PEADs:

Presidential declarations of national emergency enable the president to use draft classified orders to exercise perhaps even more expansive powers, known variously as Presidential Emergency Action Documents or Presidential Emergency Action Directives (PEADs).¹⁷² The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)

defines these documents as “[f]inal drafts of Presidential messages, proposed legislation proclamations, and other formal documents, including DOJ [Department of Justice]-issued cover sheets addressed to the President, to be issued in event of a Presidentially-declared national emergency.”¹⁷³ They originated as part of Eisenhower-era planning for continuity of government (COG) procedures, which were intended to maintain major government operations during and following a nuclear exchange with the Soviet Union.¹⁷⁴ The situations in which the Executive Branch plans to employ such procedures, however, now encompass a broad array of declared national emergencies.¹⁷⁵

The very first form of continuity of government and use of PEADs that Dwight Eisenhower had prepared was called “Plan D-Minus.”

GENERAL SITUATION ASSUMPTION

The Plan is based on an assumed international situation involving actual or imminent attack, with little or no warning, on the United States and its allies so crippling in effect as to impair governmental control, seriously reduce military strength, produce millions of casualties, disrupt industrial and agricultural production and endanger the existence of the nation and the free world.

One of the most revealing public exchanges regarding PEADs came from the Iran-Contra Hearings. Here is another excerpt from Devolution - Part 4:

There appear to be no publicly available memoranda describing PEADs that are more recent than 1979. News sources and Congressional testimony, however, indicate that planning in a similar vein occurred throughout the Reagan years. A remarkable exchange between Representatives Jack Brooks (D-TX), Daniel Inouye (D-HI), and Iran-Contra conspirator Col. Oliver North during the 1987 Iran-Contra hearings illustrates this ongoing planning:

REP. BROOKS: Colonel North, in your work at the NSC [National Security Council], were you not assigned, at one time, to work on plans for the continuity of government in the event of a major disaster? . . .

SEN. [DANIEL] INOUE: I believe that question touches upon a highly sensitive and classified area so may I request that you not touch upon that, sir?

REP. BROOKS: I was particularly concerned, Mr. Chairman, because I read in Miami papers, and several others, that there had been a plan developed by that same agency, a contingency plan in the event of emergency, that would suspend the American constitution. And I was deeply concerned about it and wondered if that was the area in which he had worked. I believe that it was and I wanted to get his confirmation.¹⁹²

Representative Brooks was referring to a Miami Herald report that Col. North and FEMA developed a secret contingency plan that called for suspension of the Constitution, turning control of the United States over to FEMA, appointing military commanders to run state and local governments, and declaring martial law during a national crisis. The plan did not define national crisis, but it was understood to be nuclear war, violent and widespread internal dissent or national opposition against a military invasion abroad.¹⁹³

Here is the Miami Herald article from 1987 which was referenced above and a screenshot below.

MIAMI -- Lt. Col. Oliver North helped write a plan in 1982 to suspend the Constitution and place the country under martial law in the event of a national crisis, The Miami Herald reported.

The plan, outlined in a June 30, 1982, memo obtained by the Herald, was a revised version of contingency plans for dealing with nuclear war, insurrection or military mobilization, the newspaper reported in its Sunday editions.

This is where some of our speculation and circumstantial evidence comes into play.

Closing

Lt. Col. Oliver North wrote “Contingency plans for dealing with nuclear war, insurrection, or military mobilization.” How many times has Trump told us that the real insurrection took place on November 3rd, in reference to the stolen election?

- October 8, 2021 -

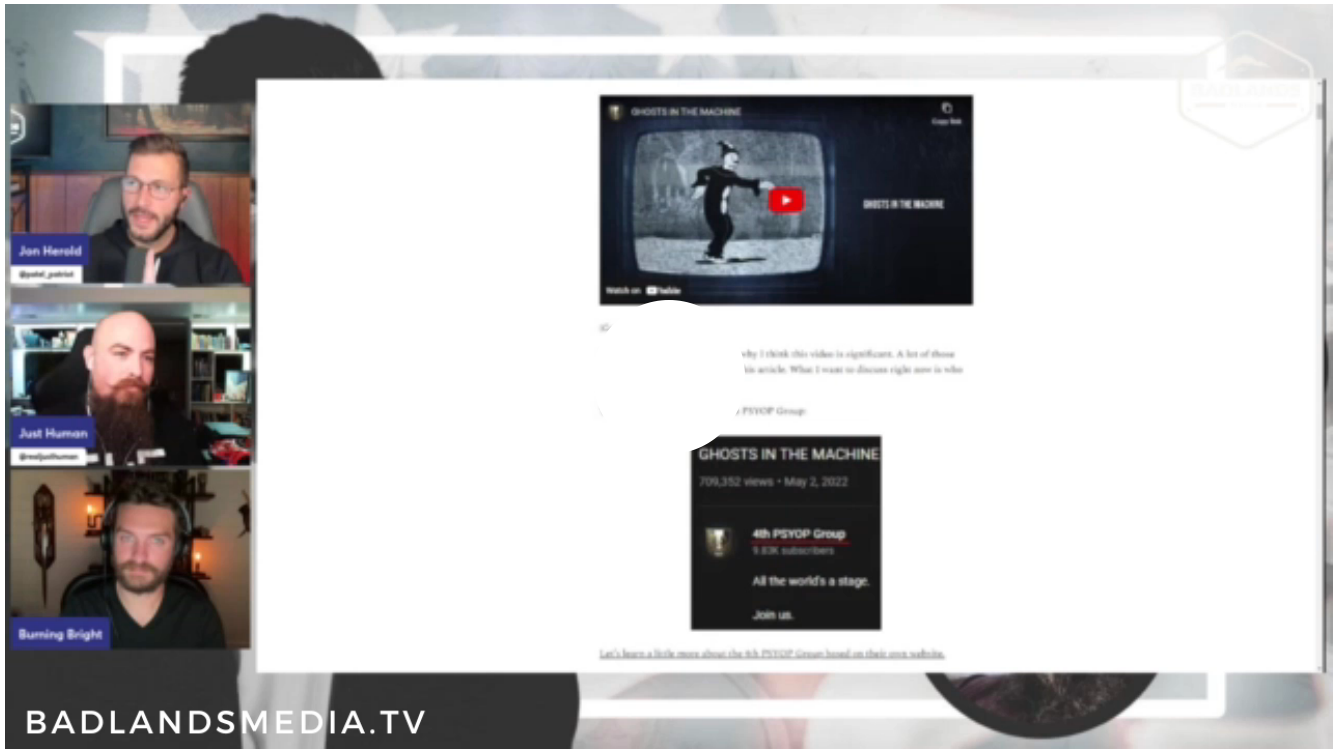

Statement by Donald J. Trump, 45th President of the United States of America

Biden has rejected our request to withhold White House information from the House Unselect Committee investigating the January 6th protest, but has not taken a stance on the insurrection that took place on November 3rd, often referred to as the Crime of the Century. This will put the current White House in a terrible position when the inevitable request for information comes concerning the massive corruption by Hunter Biden and the already well-documented crimes committed by the Biden family, the least of which are Hunter's paintings selling for as much as $500,000 a piece. With our Country collapsing, with our Military disgraced, with our Borders nonexistent, when will the American people have had enough?

The entire premise of PEADs and COG was built around responding to nuclear war and we know that over the years, warfare has evolved. Wouldn't it be logical to assume that the PEADs would evolve as well?

Trump flat-out told us a few months ago that our own government agencies have been waging illegal psychological warfare campaigns against us.

From Devolution Power Hour #153:

In Devolution- Part 22, I outlined the DoD's clear focus on a shift to irregular warfare:

- The 2020 NDAA from December of 2019 gave wide ranging authorities to the military to conduct “clandestine information operations”
- October 2nd, 2020 - The Irregular Warfare annex was added to the National Security Strategy and it came from the office of the ASD SO/LIC (Run by Ezra Cohen-Watnick)
- November 3rd, 2020 - The Presidential election took place and was obviously rife with fraud
- November 7th, 2020 - Joe Biden is declared the winner of the 2020 election
- November 9th, 2020 - Christopher Miller, an Irregular Warfare guru, is named the Acting Secretary of Defense
- November 18th, 2020 - Ezra Cohen-Watnick and Chris Miller give remarks at Fort Bragg during the ceremony which put “Special Operations Command on par with the military services for the first time.”
- December 7th, 2020 - Executive Order 13961 and the accompanying “Strategy” are issued - based in the context of war and using very similar language to the IW annex.
- December 18, 2020: Chris Miller mentions “we’ve been through some of the most complex military operations this country has ever seen.”
- The 2021 NDAA included a 50% budget increase for 1202 Authority (Irregular Warfare)
- Trump’s DoD transition team “refused to provide information about current operations, specifically in the special operations realm”

What was the purpose of all the above if not to prepare for the implementation of some form of irregular warfare?

Let’s not forget that Trump literally called himself a WARTIME PRESIDENT:

A “different kind of war than we’ve ever had” requires a different kind of solution.

We now know there was a change to the number of PEADs, and the change took place with Trump in office.

We know congress, the media, and the entire establishment were afraid of his potential use of Presidential powers.

We know he was making all sorts of moves after the stolen election.

We know he had every justification to respond to the acts of war waged upon the United States.

So the question remains, did he use the tools available to him, or did he truly walk away from office and allow the regime to take over?

I know what I believe.

Lincoln made no secret of these actions, which he justified on the grounds that "existing exigencies demand immediate and adequate measures for the protection of the National Constitution and the National Union." A year later, in response to charges of dictatorship, Lincoln insisted that "it became necessary for me to choose whether, using only the existing means, agencies, and processes which Congress had provided, I should let the government fall at once into ruin, or whether, availing myself of the broader powers conferred by the Constitution in cases of insurrection, I would make an effort to save it with all its blessings for the present age and for posterity."

THE BEST IS YET TO COME
